IN GENERAL.

The Storm has wrecked the Canvas of Dan Rice's circus, so, unable to continue the performance, he sent his company across the river to Fort Madison, Iowa, where they opened last night.

The alleged beauty contest at the South Side Dime Museum came off last night. The first prize of $100 was awarded to the handsome Miss Kate Hogan, of No. 211 West Lake street, and the second prize of $50 to Miss Ella Hall, of No. 11 S. Clinton street, respectively.

A delegation from the Chamber Union claims that the published account of a meeting of the union Saturday evening, at which an eight hours' system was agreed upon, was incorrect, as no such meeting was held.

The French Club of Chicago held its regular meeting yesterday at the Grand Pacific. They had numerous new members, making the total membership forty-three. It was decided to give a ball at Bryan Hall April 7, and a picnic the first of the ensuing French holiday.

At an Illinois Central train was approaching the Sedgwick yesterday a passenger drew a revolver and shot himself, dying almost instantly. The body was removed to Kennedy, and an investigation of his affairs proved that his name was Henry Ellis. He was supposed to have a wife and two children residing in this city. The pistol, it is supposed, he got aboard the train.

A meeting of the committee of the Fifty-second Illinois Volunteers was held yesterday at the Grand Pacific to prepare for the reception of the survivors of the battle of Shiloh, to be held at the Grand Pacific April 6 to celebrate the anniversary of that victory. It was decided to send a committee to Springfield to invite the attendance of Governor Yates. It was also decided to request Mayor Heath to issue the proclamation requesting the soldiers' quit business on that day, and to invite the Mayor and Common Council, which will be left to Chicago in August.

The Cook-county Council has allowed all Saturday half-rents for the 31 tenants in the gasometer. Tenderness on Sundays and holidays being worth just nothing at St. Paul's church, moving week on Sundays and holidays will be dispensed with.

THE FIRES.

Special services to-morrow on account of the Shorthand men among the school children will be held at Grand Boulevard Methodist Episcopal church, corner of Oakwood boulevard and Langley avenue. The Rev. J. H. Burnham, editor of the Methodist Sunday-School Banner, will preside, and the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Hamilton, will assist. Addresses will be delivered by the Rev. Mr. Burnham, Rev. Mr. Hamilton, and Rev. Mr. Cross, Secretary of the Bible Society, and by Messrs. Graham and Gregg, Shorthand Reporters. Music will be furnished by the choir of the church, assisted by the Apollo Musical Club.

Have you ever seen the opera-house in Harmony?

It is now being talked about a great deal in Parliament and in the trade. I am told that it is one of the finest opera-houses in the country. It is situated in the village of Harmony, Du Page county, Ill., about thirty miles from Chicago, on the Galena Division of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway. It is a handsome building, with a seating capacity of 1,000 persons, and is provided with all the modern appliances for the convenience of audiences and performers. It was built by the Harmony Musical Association, and is owned by the members of that society. The opening performance will be given on the evening of April 7, when the Association will present Mr. J. C. Cross's Operetta of Miss Bragg's Lecture, assisted by Mrs. Engineer Wright and other talented amateurs. Tickets are now on sale at the principal music stores in this city, and at the door of the opera-house on the evening of the performance. Reserved seats, $1.50; admission, $1. Those who desire to secure good seats should not delay purchasing their tickets. Persons who have not been invited to attend the opening performance will be welcomed at the rehearsals, which will be held on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week.

The meeting was harmonious throughout. The Shorthand delegates were much pleased with their reception, and the committee of the Fourth ward generally, especially those of the Fourth ward, deserve credit for the success and harmony of the meeting.

The meeting will be held this evening at the corner of Halsted street and West Madison street.
